TERMS & CONDITIONS FOR 2017 SEASON TICKETS

1. All passengers will be carried subject to the standard Conditions of Carriage of White Funnel Ltd as amended and updated from time to time.
2. A 2017 Season Ticket is valid for the sole use of the person to whom it is issued and is not transferable. It entitles the holder to free travel on MV Balmoral on all public sailings in UK Coastal waters. It does not cover sailings when the ship is under charter or privately hired. White Funnel Ltd reserve the right to prohibit the use of 2017 Season Tickets on certain specific public sailings, notice of which will be published in advance.
3. Holders are recommended to book in advance of travel using the Company's telephone booking service in order to have their intention to travel recorded and so be sure of their place on board. However, if not booked in advance, boarding will not be denied if there is space available for the journey being undertaken.
4. Holders are entitled to free outward or return road transport where this is advertised as an integral part of an eligible sailing. However, bookings must be made in advance in order to be sure of a place.
5. Entitlement includes charges associated with shore excursions, attractions or events advertised as an integral part of a particular public sailing. However, such places are subject to availability so bookings must be made in advance in order to be sure of a place.
6. White Funnel Ltd reserves the right to withdraw or cancel without compensation 2017 Season Tickets which have been subject to misuse.
7. No refund, partial refund or compensation is payable in the event of cancellation of one or more sailings on account of weather or other circumstances.
